The Japanese were hiding everywhere, in caves, tunnels, holes and pillboxes, ready to cut down any enemies who approached. The escarpment was so deadly it was dubbed "Hacksaw Ridge."

Medic Desmond Doss was one of the three men who volunteered to go up the ridge and have the cargo nets (something not shown in the movie). They were the same cargo nets that the men had used to climb down from the army personnel carriers into the landing crafts that took them ashore. In the photo below, Desmond is seen standing on top of the ridge. The photo doesn't convey the sheer danger he was in up there. The photographer refused to get any closer for fear he would be hit by Japanese fire. -The Conscientious Objector Documentary

Desmond Doss

Okinawa became the bloodiest battle of the Pacific War. More than 100,000 Japanese died, a frightening number matched only by the tally of unfortunate Okinawan citizens who perished in the fighting. Army casualties of more than 4,600 dead and 13,700 wounded were almost equaled by 3,200 Marines dead and 13,700 wounded. Even the Navy, which avoided the horrendous ground combat, lost almost 5,000 dead and 4,300 wounded to kamikaze attacks. Ironically, though Okinawa was a victory for the United States, it's extremely large toll shamed military strategists. If Okinawa produced such carnage, what might happen when American forces stepped onto Japanese home soil? That dreadful thought hung over every Pacific battle, and lessened opposition among high government and military figures to using the atomic bomb in hopes of ending the war.

19. During Dosses trial what does his father bring to change the outcome? A letter from General Mugrove defending Doss' constitutional rights to serve as a C.O.

1936 OLYMPICS

Adolf Hitler took power in Germany in 1933. Observers in the United States and other western democracies soon began to question the integrity of supporting Olympic Games hosted by the Nazi regime.

Reporting on reports of the persecution of Jewish athletes in 1931, Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic Committee (AOC), stated: "The very foundation of the modern Olympic revival will be undermined if individual countries are allowed to restrict participation by means of class, creed, or race."

Brundage, like many others in the Olympic movement, initially considered barring the Games from Germany. After a brief and lightly managed inspection of German sports facilities in 1934, Brundage revised his policy. But Jewish athletes were being treated fairly and that the Games should go on as planned.

THE BOYCOTT DEBATE IN THE UNITED STATES

Debate over participation in the 1936 Olympics was greatest in the United States, which traditionally sent one of the largest teams to the Games. By the end of 1934, the lines on both sides were clearly drawn.

Avery Brundage

Avery Brundage opposed a boycott, arguing that politics had no place in sport. He fought to send a US team to the 1936 Olympics, claiming: "The Olympic Games belong to the athletes and to the Olympic spirit."

Apollo 13 is a 1995 American historical docudrama film directed by Ron Howard. The film stars Tom Hanks, Kevin Bacon, Bill Paxton, Gary Sinise, and Ed Harris. The screenplay by William Broyles Jr. and Al Reinert, that dramatizes the aborted 1970 Apollo 13 lunar mission, is an adaptation of the book Lost Moon: The Perilous Voyage of Apollo 13 by astronaut Jim Lovell and Jeffrey Kluger.

The film depicts astronauts Jim Lovell, Jack Swigert, and Fred Haise aboard Apollo 13 for America's third Moon landing mission. En route, an on-board explosion deprives their spacecraft of most of its oxygen supply and electric power, forcing NASA's flight controllers to abort the Moon landing, and turning the mission into a struggle to get the three men home safely.

1. Jim Lovell was part of Apollo 8. How close to the moon was Apollo 8? 40 Nautical miles

2. The original flight crew for Apollo 13 was? Jim Lovell, Fred Haise, and Jack Swigert

3. What happened to the original crew of Apollo 13 and why were they bumped from the assignment?
13 had needed more time to test properly for a lunar flight, as he had only recently benefited from experimental surgery to correct an inner ear disorder.

March 23, 1970 - Three weeks prior to launch

4. How long will it take Apollo 13 to get to the moon? 4 days

5. Jim Lovell's son asks about the fire. He is referring to Apollo 1 - when all crew members perished in a fire on the launch pad in 1967. Who were the crew members killed? Online research: Gus Grissom, Edward S. White, Roger B. Chaffin

April 7, 1970 - 4 Days prior to launch

6. What superstitions there does a reporter bring up during a press conference with the astronauts? The mission is Apollo 13 (13) so the mission ends the mission gracefully on April 13.

7. What important announcement does Jim Lovell make during this press conference? He will return after 218 orbits.

8. Jim mentions the temperature difference on the moon between sunlight and shadow. What is this difference? 400 degrees

23. How fast are they going and how far from the moon are the astronauts when they emerge from the dark side of the moon? 7062 feet per second and 56 miles from the surface of the moon.

24. How many hours does NASA think the astronauts have before they run out of power? 54 hours

25. Why does NASA not allow the astronauts any more waste dumps? They might get pushed off course by the warning.

26. A problem with Carter's attitude film develops - what is the solution? Put a square peg in a round hole. Use the square cartridge available and put them where round cartridges are used.

Day 5

27. Jim Lovell's family goes to visit Jim's mother Blanch. When Blanch is told an accident has happened, how does she reassure Jim Lovell's scared daughter? What does she say about a washing machine? If they could get a washing machine to fly my dream could land.

28. What medical malady occurs? The crew takes off the medical monitoring equipment.

April 9, 1970 - 2 Days prior to launch

9. Why is Ken Mattingly not allowed to go on the mission? Who is named as his replacement?
Jack Swigert

10. What happens the first time Jack Swigert goes into the flight simulator with his new crew?
He does not make the correct decisions regarding a fuel indicator light.

April 11, 1970 - Cape Kennedy, Florida

Day 3 - April 13

19. How long does it take to "tie up the LEM"? 3 hours by accident - they need to do it in 15 minutes

20. The NASA workers start discussing options of direct abort or using the Moon's gravitational pull to sling shot around the moon and get a free ride home. What decision is made? Use the moon's gravitational pull.

21. The President asks NASA to give him odd the mission will have a safe return? What odds are given to the President? 3:1

22. What happens when the astronauts go into the shadow of the moon? Loss of signal or communication. Stars are brighter. Lunar sunrise

Day 6

26. The network airs an old broadcast with Jim Lovell in which Lovell discusses a contact radiator when he had to land his plane on an aircraft carrier with no lights, a jammed radar, no usable landing signal available, low fuel and shrouded out instruments. How did Jim Lovell find the carrier? The propeller plane being turned up by the carrier's lead jet fuel.

27. When Jack Swigert is going through the procedure with Ken Mattingly and about to start flipping switches, he asks Jack about all the condensations. Jim is concerned with the possibility of an electrical short. How does Jack describe this problem? In describing it he says to throw a toaster through a car wash.

28. Why does the crew continue to be shallow? What is the solution? They are underwater because they do not have a couple hundred pounds of mass rods on board. They must transfer fuel to make up for this difference.
